

Dr B T Sampath Kumar M.Sc., Ph.D., PGDCS

Dr. B T Sampath Kumar is a Senior Professor in the Department of Studies and Research in Library and Information Science, Tumkur University, Tumakuru, Karnataka state, India. He has the rare distinction of achieving First Rank in M.Sc. Library and Information Science and receiving Gold Medal. He pursued his Ph.D. degree from Kuvempu University and also obtained Post Graduate Diploma in Computer Science (P.G.D.C.S) from the University of Hyderabad, Telangana. He has published more than 250 research papers in International/nationally reputed journals and Seminars/Conferences proceedings.

Sampath Kumar has received the “I.L.A.P.V.Vergheese Award” for the best research paper published in ILA Bulletin. He also received the “Best Academic LIS Professional Award” from Library Professional Association (LPA) During I-KOAL 2019 at Sardar Patel University, Gujarat and received the State award for distinguished service rendered in the field of Library and Information Science from the Government of Karnataka on 26th of April 2022. He delivered more than 250 special lectures at various universities and colleges across the country.

He served as Registrar (In-charge); Dean of the Faculty of Science and Technology; Director of the College and Development Council; Syndicate Member and Academic Council Member of Tumkur University, Tumakuru. Currently, he is a Director of the Planning Monitoring and Evaluation Board (PMEB), at Tumkur University, Tumakuru. He visited UAE, Thailand, Cambodia and Vietnam to attend and present papers at international conferences.